DOCUMENT RETENTION POLICY

The primary purpose for recording and retaining this information is to enable Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Australia ("the Society"), which is responsible for the religion of Jehovah's Witnesses in Australia, to supervise the religious activities of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the country, individually and collectively. This includes:

- (1) Being aware of anyone who is no longer a member of the Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses;
- (2) Knowing what spiritual help and assistance has been given to the individual concerned;
- (3) Providing whatever direction is needed to ensure that the Scriptural standards, as set out in God's Holy Word, the Bible, are maintained in the Congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses; and
- (4) Ensuring that the individual concerned is given whatever spiritual help and assistance is needed if he or she wishes to again become a member of the Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in the future.

OFFICE USE

Additional comments:

All other records held by the Society pertaining to this matter, both electronic and hard copy, were destroyed as required by the Document Retention Policy of the Society.

CONGREGATION USE

(The chairman of the judicial committee will complete this section when the date-stamped copy of this form is returned by the Society)

This is the only record retained by the _____ Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses regarding this matter. All other records were destroyed.
